

For Immediate Press Release:

June 6, 2018

Malvern, Arkansas: The 38th annual Malvern Brickfest has shaped up to be one of the state's premiere festivals. Acme Brick and Sykes Enterprises are proud to welcome country music entertainer Phil Vassar who will perform Saturday night, June 23rd. Vassar is one of a handful of musicians to have multiple hits as a songwriter and as an artist. He has ten #1s, fifteen top-10s, and twenty-six top-40s. Top songs include "Just Another Day in Paradise," "Carlene," "Six Pack Summer," "American Child," "For a Little While" and "My Next Thirty Years" (Tim McGraw), "Right on the Money" (Alan Jackson), "I'm All Right" and "Bye Bye" (Jo Dee Messina), and many more. American Soul is Phil's ninth album. Other special musical guests include Abby Lindsey and Southern Tribe.

Brickfest 2018 is packed full of family fun and entertainment for all ages. Events include the Car Show, Brickfest 5K, Bull Bash, Horseshoe Tournament, Brick-B-Q Ribs Cook-off, Watermelon-eating Contest, 3-on-3 Basketball, Dog Show, Baggo Tournament, and Prize Drawing as well as traditional events like the Brick Toss, Best Dressed Brick, and Brick Car Derby – plus a petting zoo and many activities for the kids. Lots of great food will be available from local and regional vendors and food trucks. For more information call 501-732-6412, go to MalvernBrickfest.com, or find Malvern Brickfest on Facebook.
